Gender, Race and Space
Student Research Conference
September 25th, 2010

Deadline for Paper/Poster Proposal Submissions: April 30th

- Poster and paper submissions welcome
- Abstracts must have a minimum of 250 words
- Please include your name, e-mail and affiliation when submitting to: genderraceandspaceconference@pacific.rsmart.edu
- Indicate whether you’ll present a paper or a poster
- Paper presentations will be 10-15 minutes long, papers should be 3,500-4,000 words (8-10 pages)
- Prizes will be awarded to the best papers!!

Keynote Speaker: Mary Ting Yi Lui

- Mary Lui is an Associate Professor of History and American Studies. She is the author of The Chinatown trunk Mystery: Murder, Miscegenation, and Other Dangerous Encounters in Turn-of-the-Century New York City. Her primary research focuses on: Asian American history, urban history, women and gender studies, and public history.

Pacific’s Faculty Panel:

- Merrill Schleier: Art History
- Theresa Bergman: Communications
- Xiaojing Zhou: English & Ethnic Studies

For more information, visit our Sakai site: genderraceandspaceconference@pacific.srsmart.com