Material breach shall include, but not be limited to, Consultant’s failure to perform the Services in accordance with the terms set forth in this Agreement including the Scope of Work (with time being deemed of the essence with respect to adherence to any timetable set forth in the Scope of Work or otherwise agreed to in writing by Consultant).

(d) Effect of Termination. Any early termination of this Agreement, whether for a party’s breach or otherwise, shall be without prejudice to any claims or damages or other rights of one party against the other party. In the event of early termination of this Agreement by either party:

(i) University shall pay Consultant all undisputed amounts due for Services rendered and, if applicable, non-refundable expenses incurred, prior to the termination date; provided, however, that University may set off and apply all or any portion of the amount owing by University to Consultant against any and all damages or other amounts owed by Consultant to University. The Consultant shall not be entitled to anticipated profits.

(ii) If any Fees have been prepaid by University, Consultant shall refund to University the amount of any such prepaid Fees that exceeds the value of Services actually rendered by Consultant prior to the termination date.

Except as set forth in this Agreement, Consultant shall determine the method, details, and means of performing the Services. Neither Consultant nor Consultant’s employees or subcontractors shall be deemed to be employees or agents of University. Consultant is responsible for direct payment, when and as due, of any taxes incurred as a result of the compensation paid under this Agreement, including estimated taxes, as well as for any such payments with respect to Consultant’s employees or subcontractors, and Consultant shall provide University with proof of payment upon request. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to establish a partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between the parties, and neither Consultant nor Consultant’s employees or subcontractors are authorized to bind University or make any representations on its behalf in any matter.

7. Acknowledgement of Ineligibility for Benefits. Consultant and Consultant’s employees or subcontractors will not be entitled to, and will not seek, any benefits made available to University employees, including, but not limited to: worker’s compensation, group health insurance, disability insurance, or participation in any employee retirement plan.

8. Confidentiality.

(a) Proprietary Information. At all times hereafter, Consultant will keep in confidence and trust all Confidential Information (as defined below) that Consultant learns of or receives during the term of this Agreement, and will not use, reproduce, or disclose to others any Confidential Information without University’s advance written consent, except (i) as may be directly necessary in the ordinary course of performance of the Services under this Agreement, or (ii) in accordance with a judicial or other governmental order, provided however, that, to the extent reasonably possible, Consultant shall give University reasonable notice prior to making any such disclosure in sufficient time so University may object to such disclosure if it so chooses, and provided further, that Consultant shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that it is legally required to disclose. “Confidential Information” shall mean any and all proprietary information of University, including, without limitation, information on University finances, employees, students, or alumni, and information relating to any current, future, or proposed University program, project, business practice, method of operation, funder, or marketing plan. “Confidential Information” also includes proprietary or confidential information of any third party who may disclose such information to University in the normal course of business. “Confidential Information,” however, shall not include any information which Consultant can establish (x) was known to Consultant before disclosure to Consultant under this Agreement as a result of being made generally available in the public domain, or (y) becomes publicly known and made generally available in the public domain after disclosure to Consultant under this Agreement, or is received by Consultant from a source other than University, in both cases other than by a breach of an obligation of confidentiality. Consultant further agrees that it shall not disclose the existence or terms of this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of University. Consultant’s failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 8(a) shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

(b) Student Records. If University provides Consultant with access to any “personally identifiable information” from student education records as defined by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and its implementing regulations (collectively, “FERPA Protected Information”), Consultant hereby certifies that access to FERPA Protected Information is necessary for the performance of the Services and Consultant’s duties and responsibilities under this Agreement, and agrees that Consultant shall be subject to, and shall comply with, the same conditions and restrictions on the use and re-disclosure of FERPA Protected Information as apply to University pursuant to applicable law. Consultant’s failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 8(b), or Consultant’s failure to abide by legally applicable security measures and disclosure and re-disclosure restrictions with regard to FERPA Protected Information, shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

(c) Protected Health Information. It is possible that in providing the Services, Consultant may have or be provided access to “protected health information” ("PHI") as that term is defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (collectively, “HIPAA”). Consultant agrees and acknowledges that all protected health information shall be treated as Confidential Information as defined above in Section 8(a).

The Work Product shall be considered University’s Confidential Information for purposes of Section 8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Consultant shall have the right to retain copies and use the instruments of service for any lawful purpose, including without limitation use of elements of the design on other projects, provided that the Consultant shall be responsible for the consequences of such use.

10. Consultant’s Representations.

(a) Authorization. Consultant represents that Consultant has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the Services contemplated by this Agreement, and that the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate action on the part of Consultant.

(b) Compliance with Laws. Consultant represents that Consultant will comply with all laws, ordinances, statutes, regulations, codes and the Owner’s Standards, applicable to the performance of its obligations under this Agreement and to the provision of the Services.

(c) No Violations. Consultant represents that Consultant’s execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement will not constitute: (i) a violation of any judgment, order, or decree binding on Consultant; (ii) a breach under any contract by which Consultant is bound; or (iii) an event that would, with notice or lapse of time, or both, constitute such a breach.

(d) Performance Warranty. Consultant represents that the Services will be performed with the degree of skill and care that is required by current, good, and sound professional procedures and practices, and in conformance with generally accepted professional procedures and industry standards prevailing at the time the Services are performed, and that all Services meet the specifications set forth in the Scope of Work. Consultant further represents and warrants that Consultant and all personnel used to perform the Services, including permitted subcontractors, possess the knowledge, skill, and experience necessary to perform the Services.

(e) Licenses and Permits. Consultant represents that Consultant has, and shall maintain in effect for the duration of this Agreement, all licenses, permits, qualifications, and approvals of whatsoever nature which are legally required for Consultant to render the Services. Consultant shall also ensure that all permitted subcontractors are similarly licensed and qualified.

(f) Intellectual Property. Consultant represents that no Work Product prepared or produced by Consultant pursuant to this Agreement, nor the use of any such Work Product by University, will infringe or constitute an infringement of any intellectual property right of any third party, that no third party shall have any proprietary rights in any Work Product, and that Consultant has the authority to deliver title free and clear of all liens or encumbrances to all such Work Product to University. Consultant also represents that unless otherwise specifically stated in the Scope of Work, no proprietary information of Consultant or any permitted subcontractor will be included in any Work Product and that to the extent Work Product includes any permitted third party proprietary information, including that of Consultant, delivery of the Services shall include a perpetual, non-exclusive, world-wide, royalty free license to use such proprietary information for the purposes for which it was provided.

11. Consultant’s Insurance.

(a) Required Insurance Coverage. Consultant shall, at Consultant’s sole cost and expense, procure and maintain for the duration of this Agreement the insurance coverage set forth below for claims arising from Consultant’s performance under this Agreement and for which Consultant may be legally liable, whether such liability results from any actions or omissions of Consultant, Consultant’s subcontractors, anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them, or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable:

(i) Commercial General Liability insurance coverage to include premises and operations, personal/advertising injury, products/completed operations, and liability assumed under an insured contract (including defense costs assumed under contract), with limits of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence, Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) general aggregate, and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) products/completed operations aggregate. Such insurance shall provide, or be endorsed to provide, that University and its officers, directors, employees, and volunteers are to be covered as additional insureds with respect to liability arising out of Consultant’s performance under this Agreement.

(ii) Workers’ Compensation insurance covering Consultant’s own employees as required by law, to include Employer’s Liability coverage with a limit of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) per accident for bodily injury or disease.

Such insurance shall provide, or be endorsed to provide, that University and its officers, directors, employees, and volunteers are to be covered as additional insureds with respect to liability arising out of Consultant’s performance under this Agreement.

(v) Valuable Papers and records coverage for plans, specifications, drawings, reports, maps, books, blueprints, and other printed and electronic documents on an all-risk basis in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of research, re-creation or reconstruction of valuable papers or records related to the Services.

(vi) The Consultant shall require all sub-consultants and subcontractors to maintain the same insurance coverage as is required in this Agreement of Consultant. Such insurance shall provide, or be endorsed to provide, that University and its officers, directors, employees, and volunteers are to be covered as additional insureds with respect to liability arising out of sub-consultant’s or subcontractors performance under this Agreement.

(b) Continuous Coverage. Should any of the insurance required of Consultant under this Agreement be provided under a claims-made form, Consultant shall maintain such coverage continuously throughout the term of this Agreement and, without lapse, for a period of three (3) years beyond the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, such that, should occurrences during the term of this Agreement give rise to claims made after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, such claims shall be covered by such claims-made policy (or an equivalent policy affording prior acts coverage).

(c) Insurance Carriers. All insurance required of Consultant hereunder shall be through insurance carriers licensed to do business in the State of California and otherwise reasonably acceptable to University.

(d) Certificates and Endorsements. Consultant shall furnish University with original certificates and amendatory endorsements affecting the insurance coverage required of Consultant under this Agreement. All certificates and endorsements are to be received and approved by University before performance under the Agreement commences, and on an annual basis thereafter for the duration of the term of this Agreement. University reserves the right to require complete, certified copies of all required insurance policies, including endorsements affecting the coverage required by these specifications, at any time.

(e) Waiver of Subrogation; Cancellation or Modification. Each insurance policy required of Consultant under this Agreement shall include a waiver of subrogation clause and shall be endorsed to state that Consultant’s coverage shall not be canceled, modified, or materially changed except after thirty (30) days’ prior written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person set forth in Section 19 below has been given to University.
(f) Consultant’s Insurance Primary. For any claims arising out of this Agreement, Consultant’s insurance coverage, whether or not required under this Agreement, shall be primary insurance as respects University, its regents, officers, directors, employees, and volunteers. Any insurance or self-insurance maintained by University, its regents, officers, directors, employees, or volunteers shall be excess of Consultant’s insurance and shall not contribute with it. Consultant agrees that it shall obtain any necessary endorsements to its insurance policies to effect the requirements of this paragraph.

12. Indemnification.

(a) Indemnification by Consultant. Consultant agrees to hold harmless, defend (with counsel acceptable to University), and indemnify University and its regents, officers, directors, employees and agents (each an “Indemnified Party” and collectively, “Indemnified Parties”) from and against all claims, damages, losses, and expenses (including without limitation attorneys’ fees and costs of litigation) arising out of (i) the performance of the Services, except to the extent that such claims, damages, losses, or expenses are caused by the active negligence, sole negligence, or willful misconduct of University, or (ii) any breach or default in the performance of any of Consultant’s obligations hereunder including, without limitation, any breach of any warranty or representation.

(b) Defense of Claims. In the event an Indemnified Party is made a party to any action or proceeding by reason of any matter for which Consultant has hereby agreed to indemnify the Indemnified Party, then Consultant, upon notice from the University, shall defend such action or proceeding on behalf of the Indemnified Party at Consultant’s sole cost and expense. If Consultant or its attorney is not vigorously or adequately defending any such claim, the Indemnified Party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to join and participate in, as a party if it so elects, any proceedings or actions related to such claims and to have its attorneys’ fees and costs in connection therewith paid by Consultant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the University may participate at any time in proceedings with counsel of its own choosing at its own cost.

(c) Judgment or Settlement of Claims. Consultant shall not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to any third-party claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (not to be unreasonably withheld) unless the judgment or proposed settlement involves only the payment of money damages to be paid solely by Consultant or its insurance carrier and does not impose an injunction or other equitable relief upon the Indemnified Party.

(d) Survival. This indemnity shall not be limited by reason of any insurance coverage required under this Agreement and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

13. Limitation on Damages. In no event shall either party be liable to the other party for any special, consequential, indirect, exemplary, punitive, incidental, or similar damages (including, without limitation, loss of profits), even if such party has been apprised of the possibility thereof; provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply in the event that Consultant breaches any of the provisions of Sections 8 (Confidentiality) or 10(f) (Intellectual Property) of this Agreement.

If any Dispute is not resolved to the mutual satisfaction of the parties within ten (10) business days after delivery of the Dispute Notice (or such other period as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing), the parties shall settle such Dispute as otherwise set forth in this Section 15.

   (b) Other Proceedings. In the event a Dispute is not resolved by the meet and confer provisions under Section 15(a) above, the parties may choose any other available legal means to settle the Dispute. Each party agrees that a violation or threatened violation of this Agreement may cause irreparable injury to the other party, entitling the other party to seek injunctive relief in addition to all legal remedies.

   (c) Legal Fees and Costs. Each party shall be entitled to recover the cost of enforcing the understanding and agreements as reflected herein, including, without limitation, any attorney’s fees and costs incurred.

The University shall be deemed to be a third party beneficiary of any such agreement between Consultant and a permitted subcontractor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Consultant shall not be relieved of any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement as a result of entering into a written agreement with a permitted subcontractor.
