United Methodist Scholarships
(UM)

The United Methodist Church awards scholarships to students who are active members and demonstrate academic capability. If you are interested in applying for a United Methodist Scholarship, please have your Pastor write a letter of recommendation that references the following information:

- The Church of which you are a member and which annual conference the church is located. This includes the address of the church.
- How long you have been an active member in your church.
- Your name and University of the Pacific Identification number. Letters may be mailed, faxed or e-mailed to the Financial Aid Office.

The letter must be received before 8/2015 to be eligible for an award. Scholarship awards range from $500.00 and up. Please keep in mind if you are awarded a United Methodist Scholarship it may impact your need-based (loans and work-study) financial aid. You will be notified of your award in the fall term after the United Methodist Church has made their final selections.
