Faculty Research Lecturer Award

This award recognizes faculty members with a history of research or artistic contributions during their service at Pacific. Nominations for Faculty Research Lecturer are open to all tenured faculty with a minimum of 7 years service at any of the three Pacific locations. Self-nominations are accepted.

Nominations with supporting materials should be sent to Christine Fluter-Brown in the Office of Sponsored Programs via email, campus mail, or regular mail. The deadline for receiving nomination packages is Friday, August 28, 2015. The Faculty Research Committee will nominate a recipient and the recipient will give a lecture at the next Research Day (usually held in spring).

NOMINATION PACKAGE

All nominations must be accompanied by the following materials:

1. Letter of nomination describing both the breadth and depth of the research/artistic contribution of the nominee (maximum two pages, double-spaced).
2. CV of nominee (maximum 10 pages). Publications should be clearly separated by refereed/non-refereed status of the publication.
3. At least three one-page (or longer) letters of support, two of which must be from colleagues outside Pacific.
