MISCELLANEOUS CHANGE PROPOSAL

Please use this form to make minor changes to a program. Examples of such changes include the following:

- Changing the total number of credits for a degree
- Changing course pre-requisites, unit values, etc.
- Changes in the University General Education or designation of specific courses to satisfy General Education requirements
- Changing policies and procedures regarding Undergraduate Admissions criteria
- Policies on probation and disqualification with the various undergraduate programs
- Changes in programs, majors, concentrations, minors, and tracks, unless these are "major" changes (see below), in which case you should use a "Changes to Existing Programs" form

Note: a major revision is one involving the smaller of: a) more than 1/3 of the courses required for the program or b) 4 or more total courses, or re-conceptualizing the purpose of the course.

Before you proceed, please review the approval process in advance and leave time for each involved person or committee to review the proposal.
