BUSI 268 is a required course for completion of the MBA program.

We believe we have put together an outstanding international educational opportunity at a reasonable cost. Highlights included in the travel costs are:

- Hotel accommodations (double occupancy) in Shanghai, Shenzhen and Hong Kong, including breakfast, internet
- Daily transportation to company and cultural sites in Shanghai and Shenzhen
- Travel between Shanghai, Shenzhen (by air) and Hong Kong (by coach)
- Business visits to company sites
- Cultural visits (some entry fees not included)
- Welcome and Farewell Dinners
- Visa (single entry/single visa)
- ISIC Card (International Student ID Card)

What is NOT included:

- Tuition: Students will be financially responsible for the cost of 3 units of tuition. Tuition in the Summer semester has typically been ½ of the full tuition rate. In 2011 the cost for tuition was $624/unit.
- Food and personal expenses
- Transportation in Hong Kong by public transit
- Admission to some cultural sites

* For reference, tuition only for a Spring 3-unit course at full tuition ($1118/unit) would cost $3,354.

Payments

Payments will be applied only to the travel costs; tuition will be billed separately to your Student Account. WorldStrides, the firm we have hired to assist us in arranging this experience, will be sending registration information in the next few days. By December 14 you will need to register on their website and make your non-refundable $400 deposit. Additional payments and deadlines:

- January 15: $1,035
- February 15: $775
- March 15: $774

Travel Information

The group will meet on the Pacific campus from Monday, May 7 through Thursday, May 10; these sessions are mandatory. All participants must depart on May 11 with the group. Deviations in the return date/location may be available: additional charges may apply. Deviations should be arranged directly through WorldStrides once you have registered on their site.
PASSPORTS
You will need a valid passport to participate in this opportunity; due to requirements in China passports must be valid for 6 months past the last travel date and there must be a blank page remaining. If you do not have a valid passport, you must apply immediately; a color copy of your passport must be submitted no later than March 1, 2012. More information on applying for a passport is available at www.travel.state.gov/passport_services.html.

VISAS
Visas are required for all US Citizens to enter China. The cost is $140 (included) at this point in time and is subject to change. We will make the arrangements to get all of the passports and completed visa applications to the Consulate in San Francisco in early March. If you prefer, you can obtain the visa independently or through Worldstrides. If you have dual citizenship, please let us know immediately as there is an additional cost.

COURSE REGISTRATION
All students are required to be registered for BUSI 268 in Summer Session I. Financial arrangements with Student Accounts must be made prior to departure.

FINANCIAL AID
The contribution of the Dean’s Scholarship ($1,100 per student), is the only Financial Aid available from the MBA Program. Graduate Assistantships are not available. Please take this into consideration as your make your financial aid decisions for Spring 2013.

If you have any questions, please contact the MBA Program office at 946-2629.
