Call for Papers and Posters!

Gender, Race and Space
Student Research Conference
September 25, 2010

Organized by the Ethnic Studies and Gender Studies Programs

The theme of this conference is the production and transformation of living spaces through social relations and interactions, policies, and representations at the local, national, or global level.

Possible topics may include but are not limited to the following:

- Men’s and women’s positions in public spaces, i.e. cities
  - At home (domestic violence, social position)
  - Deconstruction of Public and Private Spheres
- Ethnic neighborhoods: Barrios, Chinatowns, Little Saigon, Little Italy
- Urban renewal and its impact on the poor
- Japanese-American Internment Camps
- Native American Reservations
  - Displacement, internal colonialism
- Environment and globalization/sustainability
- Immigration in relation to National Space
  - Gender/Race/Ethnicity/Religion
  - Historical perspectives to present
  - Arab-Americans
- Art and architecture in relation to gender/race/ethnicity
  - In film/visual art, literature, pop culture
- Queer Space/Queering Space
  - Pride parades
- Language of Space
- Identities and Intersexuality
- The body as space

Please submit a short abstract (250 words maximum, indicating whether you’ll present a poster or paper), along with your name, e-mail and affiliation to:

genderraceandspaceconference@pacific.rsmart.com

NEW DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS:
JUNE 1, 2010

Awards will be given for the best pre-submitted undergraduate paper (submission deadline September 17th)!!!