Delta Fusion is an annual workshop-and-pageant that “ignites community creativity by bringing the stories of the San Joaquin Delta region to life with giant puppets and dramatic pageantry.” Theatre Arts Professor Cathie McClellan is the artistic director and producer of this celebration, and she is proud to produce Delta Fusion in its 5th year!

This year’s celebration is entitled Stockton Steaming Ahead, and it tells the story of the Delta’s transformation throughout the years by all states of water (liquid, solid, air). This event is proudly cosponsored by the Haggin Museum and Pacific Theatre Arts.

Join us for another fantastic year of this great community!
