For more information or to attend an Information Meeting, contact the Center for Professional & Continuing Education at 209.946.2424 or cpce@pacific.edu
General Information
The Evening Degree Completion Program is designed to meet the work schedules of adult learners wanting to earn their Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Behavior. A new cohort begins every fall focusing on those talents and skills that leaders need in order to succeed and thrive in today's knowledge economy. Classes run from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday nights and are held at the University of the Pacific's campus in Stockton, California.

Eligibility
Admission into the Evening Degree Completion Program is based on an evaluation of official transcripts from regionally accredited universities and colleges. All applicants are required to meet the following requirements:

- Completion of at least 60 semester units of credit (70 preferred)
- A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.50
- Completion of the University of the Pacific's general education requirements

Current Curriculum
The following is a list of courses that are required to complete the Bachelor of Science Degree in Organizational Behavior:

- Introduction to Organizational Behavior
- Advanced Professional Writing
- Social Psychology
- Introduction to Organizational Communication
- Professional Communication
- Organizational Structure, Design and Analysis
- Computer Concepts and Applications
- Accounting and Financial Statement Analysis
- Economic Principles and Problems
- Public Relations: Principles and Marketing
- Organizational Social Psychology
- Applied Research
- Organizational and Managerial Development
- Issues in Human Resource Management
- Semantics and Critical Thinking for Adults
- Introduction to Ethical Theories
- Research Methods: Quantitative and Qualitative
- Issues in Decision Making

Financial Aid
The University of the Pacific is pleased to announce a special reduction in the tuition rate for the Evening Degree Completion Bachelors Program in Organizational Behavior. Beginning Fall 2010, the University has reduced the tuition for this program from $1,160 to $734 per credit unit to meet the needs of adults in the community. Students may also be eligible for subsidized and unsubsidized Stafford Federal Loans. It is important that the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FASFA) be filled out and results submitted to the University of the Pacific to determine financial aid eligibility. The FASFA form is available online at www.fafsa.ed.gov and results should be submitted to the University of the Pacific, Code 001329.

What do I need to get started?

- Obtain all transcripts from all schools that you have attended. If you received official transcripts, keep them sealed. For initial evaluation purposes unofficial transcripts are acceptable.
- Set up a one-on-one appointment with an Office of Adult Learning representative or attend an Information Meeting. Visit our website at www.pacific.edu/cpce for dates and times.
- Complete the online FASFA at www.fafsa.ed.gov
- Apply for a Cal Grant (January and February of each year) www.calgrants.org

Once your transcripts are received, you will be contacted about the next steps to be admitted into the Evening Degree Completion Program.

Need additional information? Contact Elise Sloan, Office of Adult Learning, at 209.946.2424 or cpce@pacific.edu.

Don't wait! Finish what you've started, invest in yourself and your future!