

The most recent data on graduation rates, board licensure passage rates, and post-graduate training placements for Doctor of Pharmacy graduates from the University of the Pacific are provided below.

Additionally, these data are provided to meet the Policy on Program Disclosure of Specific Information from the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education.

DOCTOR OF PHARMACY PROGRAM OUTCOMES DATA

UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC
Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences

Total Graduation Rates to Date

Entering Year	Total Graduation Rate
2008	99%
2009	100%
2010	99%
2011*	97%
2012*	97%
2013*	84%

* Data Incomplete

Source: University of the Pacific's Office of Institutional Research

On-Time (3-Year) Graduation Rates

Graduating Year	On-Time Graduation Rate
2013	91%
2014	89%
2015	89%
2016	84%

Source: University of the Pacific's Office of Institutional Research

NAPLEX Passage Rate for First Time Takers

Year	University of the Pacific	National
2012	98%	97%
2013	97%	96%
2014	98%	95%
2015	96%	93%
2016*	94%	87%

*These data are through August 2016.

Source: National Association of Boards of Pharmacy

Graduates Placement in Post-Graduate Residencies, Fellowships and Academic Programs

Graduating Year	Number of Students Entering Post-Graduate Programs
2011	43
2012	46
2013	37
2014	53
2015	45
2016	64

Sources: Pharmacy Graduating Student Supplemental Survey, ASHP Residency Match Data