

THE 'EMERGING' TRUMP DOCTRINE AND THE HEALTH OF AMERICAN DIPLOMACY

Dr. Frank Young, retired Senior Deputy Assistant Administrator for Asia, USAID and Senior Inspector, Office of the Inspector General, U.S. Department of State discussed how the past year has affected our diplomats and their work.

February 8, 2018

School of International Studies
University of the Pacific

