Ensemble 20/21 debuts Conservatory composers

Ensemble 20/21, the new Conservatory faculty music ensemble, presents an evening of new works by Conservatory composers François Rose and Robert Coburn Friday, March 28, at 7:30 p.m. General admission tickets are $6, students and seniors are $4 and Pacific students with ID are free.

The performance will bring together the talents of Conservatory artists John DeHaan, tenor; Teresa Ling, violin; Patricia Shands, clarinet; Nina Flyer, cello; Nicolas Waldvogel, conductor; Robert Coburn, computer, with guest artists Philip Gelb, shakuhachi; Emma Moon, flute; and Brian Kendrick, percussion.

Works to be premiered include “Demain oublié” by François Rose and “Tranquil Turmoil,” “Patterns Luminous,” and “Haiku Shadow” by Robert Coburn.

François Rose (born in Montréal, Québec in 1959) studied composition at McGill University in Montréal. In 1997, he received his Ph.D. in composition from the University of California, San Diego.

FERPA expert to speak on privacy of student records

The Pacific Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, in conjunction with Pacific’s Office of the Registrar, will present two workshops regarding the privacy of student records on Friday, April 25.

The first workshop will begin at 8:30 a.m. and the second session at 1:30 p.m. Each workshop runs three hours and will meet in Callison Hall. The $20 per person fee includes refreshments and a copy of “Managing the Privacy of Student Records.”

Cliff Ramirez, assistant registrar at UCLA, will be the speaker for the day. He is regarded as a Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) expert and has presented FERPA workshops at regional and national higher education conferences. Ramirez is also a certified Franklin Covey facilitator, staff welfare coordinator for UCLA student affairs and a member of the American Society for Training and Development, the Council on Law in Higher Education and the National Notary Association.

To register, contact University Registrar Cecilia Rodriguez at crodriguez@uop.edu or at x6-2135. The deadline is March 31. The event is open to all two and four year higher education staff, so a large attendance is expected, register early.
Pacific Pharmacy students attended leadership conference

The first California Pharmacy Student Leadership Conference was held in Pasadena, Calif., March 8-9. Ten student leaders from the Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences were invited to join 50 other students from each of the five other California schools of pharmacy to participate in this unique experience.

National speakers discussed leadership topics including Winning Ways, team building, time management and how pharmacists can impact the profession through pharmacy organizations.

Students were assigned to teams to plan and implement a leadership skills building exercise. The exercises are designed to be carried out by each school in the coming months and presented at the annual meetings of the California Pharmacists Association and the California Society of Health System Pharmacists.

The following Pacific Pharmacy students were in attendance:

- Jason Kim, Jennifer Rasmussen, Rebekah Dant, Richard Chong, Jeff Jolliff, William Altmiller, Mohammad (Moe) Agassibake, Sheila Nowfar, Ziba Ansari-Jaberi and Barry Petersen.

Dr. Donald G. Floriddia, Associate Dean of Professional and Student Affairs, also attended as ASP Advisor.

The program was supported and funded by Pfizer, Inc. and Rite Aid Corporation.

His music has been performed in several European, Australian, and North and South American cities. In 1990, he was awarded the ZAIKS prize in the III International Serocki Competition in Poland for a chamber orchestra piece, “Face à face,” and in 2001 he received the 2nd Prize at the 5th International Edvard Grieg Competition for Composers in Norway for “Le souvenir de l’oubli” for violin and piano. His music is recorded on Neuma Records.

Robert Coburn is professor and chair of music theory and composition, and director of the Conservatory Computer Studio for Music Composition. He holds a Master of Arts degree in composition from the University of California, Berkeley, and a Ph.D. in composition from the University of Victoria, Canada. His concert music has been performed throughout the U.S., Europe, Canada and Asia. His temporary sound installations have been exhibited at the Richard and Marjorie Reynolds Gallery on campus, the Henry Gallery (Seattle) and the Indira Gandhi National Centre of the Arts (New Delhi, India). His public art works are permanently installed in Portland, Ore. and Philadelphia. He has been an invited speaker at the Australasian Computer Music Festival 2002, Australia; the Music Cognition and Behavior Symposium, Italy; the Conference on Systems Research in the Arts: Music, Environmental Design, and the Choreography of Space, Germany; the Royal Conservatory, Sweden; and elsewhere.

Call for creativity or research poster entries

The third annual University of the Pacific “Celebrate Research/Creativity Poster Session” will be on Thursday, April 17 from 3-5 p.m. in Callison Hall. The deadline for poster abstract submission is Friday, April 4.

All faculty and students are invited to participate. Joint faculty-student projects are encouraged. The poster may be for research in any field of study or may describe any artistic or creative work. Posters will be displayed on a 3 ft x 4 ft (minimum size) board. At least one of the authors of each poster should be present at the poster session.

Abstracts for the posters should have the title of the poster, the names of the poster authors, departmental affiliation(s) and the written abstract, which is not to exceed 300 words.

The San Joaquin Chapter of Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Society is organizing the poster session. Abstracts can be sent by campus mail or e-mail to Gary Litton (glitton@uop.edu), Engineering Department.

If you need additional information, contact Dr. Litton at x6-3070, or Carol Brodie at x6-7356, in the Research and Graduate Studies Office.
Student supervisors encouraged to attend information sessions
