Chapter One: Ethics and Narrative

Nina Rosenstand, “Learning Moral Lessons from Stories”
Robert Flashman et al, “Ethical Wills”
Stephen Covey, “Principles of Personal Leadership”
Mark Johnson, “Moral Imagination”
Wangari Maathai, “Konyeki and His Father”
John Hockenberry, “A Farewell to Arms”

Chapter Two: Moral Development Theory

James Rachels, “What is Morality?”
Lawrence Kohlberg, “Indoctrination Versus Relativity in Value Education”
Carol Gilligan, “New Maps of Development: New Visions of Maturity”
Katha Pollitt, “Marooned on Gilligan’s Island: Are Women Morally Superior to Men?”
Gertrud Nunner-Winkler, “Two Moralities? A Critical Discussion of an Ethic of Care and Responsibility versus an Ethic of Rights and Justice”

Chapter Three: Ethical Relativism

James Rachels, “The Challenge of Cultural Relativism”
Kwame Appiah, “The Escape from Positivism”
John Fletcher Moulton, “Law and Manners”

Chapter Four: Egoism and Altruism

James Rachels, “Ethical Egoism”
Dacher Keltner, “Survival of the Kindest”

Chapter Five: Religion and Ethics

Judith Boss, “Is Morality Grounded in Religion?”
C.S. Lewis, “The Law of Human Nature”
David Hollinger, “Religious Ideas: Should They Be Critically Engaged or Given a Pass?”

Chapter Six: Philosophy and Ethics

James Rachels, “The Utilitarian Approach”
James Rachels, “The Debate over Utilitarianism”
Judith Boss, “Deontology: The Ethics of Duty”
Nina Rosenstand, “Aristotle’s Virtue Theory”
Chapter Seven: Psychology and Ethics

Albert Bandura, “Selective Moral Disengagement in the Exercise of Moral Agency”
Elizabeth Minnich, “Why Not Lie?”
Sissela Bok, “Lies for the Public Good”
Michael Davis, “Explaining Wrongdoing”

Chapter Eight: Ethics in Everyday Life

John Hardwig, “In Search of an Ethics of Personal Relationships”
Pepper Schwartz, “Eliminating the Provider Role”
William Damon, “Parental Authority and the Rules of the Family”
Aristotle, from Nicomachean Ethics
Antonia Abbey, “Alcohol-Related Sexual Assault: A Common Problem among College Students”
John Hardwig, “Is There a Duty to Die?”
Anne Colby et al, “The Multiple Dimensions of Moral and Civic Development”
Martha Nussbaum, “Patriotism and Cosmopolitanism”
Sissela Bok, “From Part to Whole”