ALEX AND JERI VERESCHAGIN
Alumni House

Alex & Jeri (McCann) Vereschagin's dream of an Alumni House on the Stockton campus is finally being realized. With more than $5 million in gifts and pledges committed toward the $4.5 million project, the 15,000 square-foot facility is just a few bricks short of being the newest building on campus. Alumni will have a permanent home to showcase accomplishments and host meetings and events.

You can help make the Alumni House a reality and secure a lasting personal legacy at Pacific. Your gift of $1,000 will be recognized with a stamped brick placed in the Alumni Plaza at the entrance to the Alex and Jeri Vereschagin Alumni House.
