Women’s Herstory Month 2015

How to be an Everyday Feminist in 8 easy steps

The Vagina Monologues
- Venue: Raymond Great Hall
- Date: Feb. 27th (Fri), Feb. 28th (Sat)
- Times: 8:00 pm (Fri), 2:00 pm (Sat)
- Tickets: $5 presale, $7 at the door

Comedy lovers and feminist activists are invited to the Vagina Monologues, a world-famous play by Eve Ensler, performed by Pacific students. The event raises awareness and funds to end violence against women and girls. All proceeds benefit Women's Center Youth & Family Services.

Feminism Across Cultures
- Date: Mar. 3rd (Tue)
- Time: 6:00 pm
- Location: DeRosa University Center 211

Join the Pacific Feminists Club for an informal panel on how feminism can change across cultures.

“How I Have Been Successful” with Dr. Carolyn Kohn
- Date: Mar. 17th (Tue)
- Time: 5:00 pm - 6:00 pm
- Location: Psych Building Rm. 137

Psychology professor Dr. Carolyn Kohn shares her journey in the field of psychology and how she has found personal success. Sponsored by the Graduate Women’s Network.

Good Hair
- Date: Mar. 19th (Thu)
- Time: 8:00 pm
- Location: Janet Leigh Theater

Former All-American Barbershop quartet member Chris Rock will explore African-American hair culture.

Women in Academia
- Date: Mar. 20th (Fri)
- Time: Center for Teaching and Learning – 2nd floor of the Library
- Speakers: Sara Malec (Mathematics), Tenisha Tevis (Education), Edie Sparks (History)

Join these faculty members for a discussion of their research and experiences as women in academia.

Gender, Race, and Physical Culture
- Date: Mar. 27th (Fri)
- Time: 8:00 pm
- Location: Wendell Phillips Center 140

Watch the documentary Strong! on the life of a female boxer.

Women of Distinction 2015
- Date: Mar. 27th (Fri)
- Time: 11:30 am
- Location: Vereschagin Alumni House

The University of the Pacific is proud to honor the female student, faculty, and community members who contributed significantly to the advancement of women and gender equity and who have demonstrated leadership in their work.

Featured Speaker: Sandra Kim
- Date: Apr. 2nd (Thu)
- Time: 7:00 pm
- Location: Grace Covell Banquet Hall

Sandra Kim is the founder of Everyday Feminism, a popular independent feminist media site. Her mission is to highlight intersectionality and inclusiveness in feminist issues.