Featured Instructor - Deanna Hunt

How long have you been a part of the OLLI program?

I started teaching for OLLI the Fall term of 2007. The first course was Beginning watercolor on Friday mornings with 27 participants! Some of those “original members” are still regulars in the Friday morning course.

What is your favorite part of OLLI?

It is a tremendous honor to be in the role of teacher for the OLLI membership. There are so many things for which I am grateful being an OLLI instructor but one my favorite aspects of the experience is the rich opportunity to deeply connect with the members through the framework of the dynamic learning environment. I am continually learning from and inspired by the members.

Any words of wisdom about lifelong learning?

For someone considering to take an
Everyone can learn to draw and everyone can learn to paint! Sign up, jump in and find yourself in a positive and encouraging environment. You’ll be amazed by how much you learn and by how inspired you will feel, seeing the world with new eyes.

Deanna still has openings for her classes this spring! If you want to sign-up or learn more, just call the OLLI at Pacific office: 209-946-7658

News from the Director

2020 Here We Come!

This picture of Joanna and I was taken at the last OLLI wine tasting of 2019 at Berghold Winery. We called it our OLLI office-end of the year-holiday celebration! Berghold is beautifully decorated for the holiday season and it seemed a very fitting way for our little team of 2 to celebrate a wonderful year together at OLLI.

It’s a new year and a new semester for OLLI. I try, throughout the year to review, reflect and set new goals. We can strive to grow, change and improve any time of the year not just January 1. With that being said, it is fun to reflect upon the year that we had in 2019 at OLLI at Pacific.

In 2019:

- OLLI at Pacific earned the designation for University of the Pacific as an Age-Friendly University with the AFU Global Network. Endorsed by the Academy for Gerontology in Higher Education, it supports the 10 AFU principles such as #8: Enhance access for older adults to the university’s range of health and wellness programs and its arts and cultural activities.

- We started a new podcast called Curiosity Never Retires. In collaboration with communication students who manage the campus Pacific Tiger Broadcast. The students, record, edit and produce the OLLI podcast. The goal is to help overcome myths and misconceptions of aging through interviews with OLLI members, instructors and affiliates. I have so much fun doing the interviews and it has been a pleasure getting to know more about our members and instructors. Please take a listen and consider sharing with a friend.

- OLLI at Pacific exceeded our fundraising goal of $15,000 during the Generosity Never Retires campaign. The grand total was $17,100. Thank you so much, to all that donated. You are helping to secure OLLI’s future and growth with your generous gifts.

- For the first time we offered an international trip with Collette Travel. It was a successful venture with 24 attending this amazing trip. We are continuing to partner with Collette by offering more travel opportunities through out the year.

- A new OLLI benefit was added in the Fall. Friends of Chamber Music now offers a reduced concert ticket price to OLLI at Pacific members: Only $15 (regular price is $25)

- We started an affiliate lecture series with Del Webb Active Adult Community in Manteca, offering residents academic learning along with a plethora of current offerings at their clubhouse.

I believe in continuous growth and learning. Joanna and I are always working together, looking for ways to enhance and improve the OLLI at Pacific program. I am excited as we look forward to a 2020 full of great programming, dedicated instructors, new challenges and stimulating opportunities.

Spring Preview Reception and Art Show

Biggest turnout ever!

OLLI at Pacific's spring reception was the biggest yet. Over 200 people attended. Held at the DeRosa University Center Ballroom, members socialized, enjoyed appetizers and drinks while listening to wonderful instructors give a sneak-peak of their spring lectures and classes. This year’s reception was scheduled early in order to relieve the stress of parking in a crowded lot. The event was planned a week before students were scheduled to arrive on campus. As in the past, we continued to offer valet parking as well. Thanks to all those who volunteered to help with this popular event. Especially the art students who do a fantastic job sharing their amazing works of art and Dr. Said Shakerin who sold his Wood Delight artwork and donated the proceeds to OLLI at Pacific.
