

tra·di·tion keep·er [noun]:

A student who truly knows what it means to be a proud Pacifican.

Listed below are the University of the Pacific Traditions. Use this sheet to keep track of every tradition that you have completed, but don't forget to keep proof of your completion of that tradition (i.e. pictures, videos, ticket stubs, etc.).

- Students who entered University of the Pacific as a first-year are required to complete 75 traditions in order to become a University of the Pacific Tiger Traditions Keeper.
- Students who entered University of the Pacific as a transfer are required to complete 40 traditions in order to become a University of the Pacific Tiger Traditions Keeper.

Good luck!

Once you have completed your traditions, please bring this form and all supporting documentation to the Orientation Office no later than May 1 of your graduating year for verification.
