FINANCIAL AID

“The Yellow Ribbon program was very beneficial to me as an undergraduate student at Pacific. With everything else going on in life, such as disabilities and being a parent to a toddler, I did not have to deal with added stress of tuition. If Pacific did not participate in this program, I’m not sure if I would have been able to finish my undergraduate degree.”

We make the transfer process easy for you

At Pacific, we believe transferring to a university is a unique experience for each student. That is why our staff is here to help you through the process so you can achieve your academic goals.

THIS IS HOW WE CAN HELP

-  Submit your unofficial transcript at go.Pacific.edu/Transfer. Upon review of official Joint Service Transcripts, the university may award transferrable units for prior service.
-  We’ll set up a meeting to go over your unofficial transcript evaluation and Student Educational Plan (SEP).
-  Your SEP will help to determine the next step in the transfer admission process.

Anderson House

Pacific's Military and Veteran Center

Anderson House is a dedicated space for active duty, reserve, military-affiliated and veteran students. The center supports their academic and personal growth and creates a sense of community. It is their home-away-from-home.

Student veterans have provided input on the recent renovation. The amenities include:

- ADA-compliant access
- Updated kitchen
- A lounge
- Multi-purpose rooms

COMMUNITY

“Having a convenient place where we can gather as a community and de-stress is vital for students. The Veteran Center allows us to hold meetings and invite organizations like Veterans Affairs to come and provide health care for veterans with service-related conditions. I really feel blessed to be at a university that prioritizes student veterans and supports our academic and personal success.”

Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD)

We work with students who have learning disabilities, ADHD, chronic health conditions, traumatic brain injuries, hearing impairments, physical disabilities, psychological disorders, visual impairments and other health impairments. We also assist students who experience temporary medical conditions and injuries which may require special accommodations.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

In addition to group therapy and informal consultations, we provide individualized counseling. You can request an in-person appointment or use our online assisted therapy.

We promise: You will be safe. You will be respected. You will be heard.
